Constitution

~~Reviewed by the Church Council on 27 September 2012~~

The original constitution of 8 June 1910 (document of notary Maître Albert Gampert), modified on 31 October 1920 (document of notary Maître Alexandre de Saugy), 21 February 1937 (document of notary Maître Jean Sautter), 22 March 1953, 23 May 1954, 24 April 1959, 8 March 1960 and 29 March 1968.

A new constitution has been adopted by the General Assembly on 27 March 1980. It has been modified by the General Assembly on 28 August 2011 (VI.4.). Further amendments were approved by the General Assembly on _____ 2019.

PREAMBLE

We, members of the Church of Christ, in our common calling to preach the Gospel, administer the sacraments and participate in God's mission, and in respect of our ethnic, cultural, linguistic and confessional traditions, do hereby adopt this Constitution. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

I. FORM, PURPOSE, ~~BASIS~~, LOCATION, ~~BASIS~~ AND DURATION OF THE ASSOCIATION

1. The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Geneva (hereinafter referred to as "the Church"), is an association in accordance with Articles 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code. It shall be corporately organized and shall have the rights of a juridical person.

The Church shall be comprised of several the members of one or more congregations (hereinafter referred to as the "Congregation(s)").

2. The purpose of the Church shall be to preach and teach the Word of God, to administer the Sacraments and to bear witness to the Christian faith in word and deed. These activities ~~will shall~~ be carried out primarily by the ~~member e~~Congregations.

A specific task of the Church shall be to act for and on behalf of ~~its the e~~Congregations in matters of common concern.

3. ~~The basis of the Church's life shall be the Word of God set forth in the Old and New Testaments of Holy Scriptures, which are the source and norm of all church doctrine and practice.~~

~~This Church accepts the Ecumenical Creeds and the Lutheran confessions as sound testimony to the Word of God. The Church confesses the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the only source and norm of its doctrine, life and service. It sees in the three Ecumenical Creeds and in the Confessions of the Lutheran Church, especially in the unaltered Augsburg Confession and the Small Catechism of Martin Luther, a pure exposition of the Word of God. This it does in fellowship with other Lutheran churches.~~

- ~~4.~~ The Church is a member of the Federation of Evangelical Lutheran Churches in Switzerland and the Principality of Liechtenstein (BELK), which in turn is a member of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF). Through the Agreement of the Churches of the Reformation in Europe (Leuenberg Agreement), the BELK is in fellowship with all churches which have accepted this Agreement.

The seat of the Church shall be in Geneva.

- ~~56.~~ The duration of the Church's life shall be indefinite.

II. MEMBERS

1. The membership of the Church shall consist exclusively of baptized persons who wish to share in the traditions, teaching and life of one of the ~~e~~Congregations.

This document contains the proposed amendments to the ELCG Constitution which the ELCG Church Council commended on 11 June 2018.

2. Members shall be accepted by one of the eCongregations, and upon such acceptance become members of the Church. The eCongregations shall establish and maintain membership rolls.
3. The right to vote in the General Assembly and to hold office in the Church shall be limited to persons who are at least eighteen years of age, ~~whose names have been on the membership rolls for at least six months,~~ and who have registered for voting membership.
Inscription on a roll of voting members shall require the approval of the eCongregation. These rolls shall be submitted periodically by the eCongregations to the Church Council.
4. Membership in the Church shall terminate with the termination of membership in one of the eCongregations.
Membership in a eCongregation may be terminated by:
 - a) resignation, which may be submitted in writing at any time;
 - b) a long period of lack of relationship to ~~the a~~ eCongregation;
 - c) exclusion for just cause: action to exclude a member shall be taken by the Congregational ~~Committee~~Council, with the right of appeal to the Congregational Assembly and then the Church Council.
5. The members shall not be held personally liable for the obligations of the Church.

III. CONGREGATIONS

1. The Congregations shall be organized as associations in accordance with Articles 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code. Their authorities shall be ~~a the~~ Congregational Assembly, ~~and the Congregational Committee Council, and an auditor or auditors.~~ Their constitutions shall be approved by the Church Council and shall not contradict this eConstitution. Each Congregation shall share its annual audited financial statement with the Church Council.
2. A Congregation which is dissolved or which separates from the Church shall have no rights to the property of the Church.
3. A ~~new~~ congregation may apply for admission and may become a eCongregation of the Church by decision of the General Assembly upon recommendation of the Church Council.
4. Groups worshipping in other languages than those used by the existing eCongregations shall be encouraged.
5. A congregation may apply to associate with the Church without becoming a Congregation of the Church, and may be received as an Associate Congregation by a decision of the Church Council. Members of an Associate Congregation shall not be considered to be members of the Church and do not have the right to vote in the General Assembly. An Associate Congregation shall designate one representative to the Church Council, who shall have voice but not vote.

This document contains the proposed amendments to the ELCG Constitution which the ELCG Church Council commended on 11 June 2018.

IV. ORGANIZATION

1. The authorities of the Church shall be:
 - a) the General Assembly;
 - b) the Church Council;
 - c) the Executive Committee;
 - d) the Auditors.

The General Assembly

2. The General Assembly shall be composed of ~~all the~~ voting members of the Church. It shall be the highest authority of the Church.
3. The General Assembly shall be convened by action of the Church Council:
 - a) at its own discretion;
 - b) at the request of a Congregational ~~Committee~~Council; or
 - c) at the request of at least 10% of the voting members of the Church.

Convocation of a General Assembly shall be announced by:

- a) individual letters to ~~the~~ voting members of the Church; and
- b) publication of notice in the ~~e~~Congregational organs (both at least four weeks before the date of the Assembly); and
- c) announcement in at least three successive Sunday services.

The agenda shall be prepared by the Church Council and shall include any items proposed by a Congregational ~~Committee~~Council or a group of voting members of the Church requesting the Assembly. The agenda, with relevant information on issues to be discussed, shall be made known, together with the written announcement of the meeting. Items of business not mentioned in the agenda shall not be subject of resolutions.

4. One fifth of the voting membership shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not reached, a second meeting shall be called as soon as possible, following the same procedures defined above. At the second meeting there shall be no numerical requirements for a quorum. Except as provided in Article IV.6, decisions by the General Assembly shall require a majority of two-thirds of the voting members present.
5. The chairperson of the Church Council shall be the chairperson of the General Assembly. The chair shall appoint the secretary.
6. Only the General Assembly may act to:
 - a) amend this Constitution;
 - b) dissolve the Church;
 - c) receive a new Congregation of the Church;
 - d) expel, for good and adequate reasons, a congregation.

Decisions by the General Assembly on these matters shall require a majority of three-fourth~~s~~ of ~~those-the~~ voting members present. ~~In other matters brought before it, a simple majority of those voting shall be sufficient, except as provided elsewhere.~~

The Church Council

7. The Church Council shall be composed of ~~twelve-nine~~ to fifteen members appointed by the Congregational ~~Committees-Councils~~. ~~At least half of the members from each Congregation shall be from their Congregation Council's membership.~~ Members shall be appointed for a ~~specific~~ term of ~~not less than one-two~~ years, ~~and may be re-elected for a total of no more than three consecutive terms.~~ Partial terms shall not count toward this ~~limit~~. The number of representatives of each ~~e~~Congregation shall be determined by the Church Council with the approval of the Congregational ~~Committees~~Councils. If agreement cannot be reached, the matter shall be submitted to a General Assembly, ~~where for~~ decision ~~shall require a two-thirds majority.~~

The composition of the Church Council shall not be subject to reconsideration more often than every five years, except in the event of a change in the number of ~~e~~Congregations. The membership of a ~~e~~Congregation and its program activity shall be the most important factor in determining the number of ~~e~~Congregational representatives on the ~~Church~~ Council.

The pastors shall participate as advisors, ~~with voice but~~ without vote, in meetings of the Church Council.

8. The Church Council shall meet:
 - a) at the discretion of the chair;
 - b) at the request of at least three members; or
 - c) at the request of a Congregational ~~Committee~~Council.

Announcement of a meeting shall be made ~~in writing, electronically or~~ by individual letter to all members, at least one week before the meeting. The agenda shall be attached. Only items on the agenda shall be the subject of decisions, except, at the beginning of the meeting, by the unanimous ~~consent-vote~~ of ~~those-the~~ members present.

9. The Church Council shall be competent:
 - a) to elect its officers, ~~including who shall be~~ chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and treasurer;
 - b) to act on matters relative to common activities and concerns of the ~~e~~Congregations ~~and the Associate Congregations~~;
 - c) to promote cooperation and involvement among the ~~e~~Congregations ~~and the Associate Congregations~~;
 - d) to approve the annual financial report, including a balance sheet and a statement of income and expenditure and set the budget of the Church;
 - e) to appoint ad hoc and standing committees;
 - f) ~~to receive Associate Congregations, as well as to terminate such status for good and adequate reasons~~;
 - g) to act on all matters not assigned to another authority by law or by this Constitution.

One half of its members shall constitute a quorum. Decisions shall require a majority of two-thirds majority of the members present and eligible to vote.

10. The Mmembers of the Church Council, including the officers, shall serve without remuneration. They shall not be held personally liable for the obligations of the Church.

The Executive Committee

11. The chairperson, the vice chairperson and one other memberofficers of the Church Council shall constitute the Executive Committee. They shall be elected by the Church Council for a term of one year and may be re-elected.
12. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the management of the current affairs of the Church according to the instructions and under the supervision of the Church Council. It represents the Church to third parties and engages the Church by joint signature of two of its members.
13. The Executive Committee can may also give general or specific authority to other persons that may only be exercised together with another member of the Executive Committee.
14. The Executive Committee shall submit an annual financial report, including a balance sheet and a statement of income and expenditure, to the Church Council, not later than 30 April of the following year. The members of the Executive Committee shall abstain in the vote on discharge.

The Auditors

15. An auditor or auditors shall be elected annually by the Congregational Committees Councils to examine the accounts and the annual financial report of the Church.
16. The audited financial report shall be transmitted to the Church Council and the Congregational Councils and be available for inspection to all by the members of the Church.

V. FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND ACCOUNTS

1. The income of the Church shall consist of:
 - a) contributions of the member eCongregations;
 - b) the earnings of the Church's assets; and
 - c) other receipts designated for the Church.
2. The fiscal year shall close on 31 December.
3. The eCongregations shall contribute to the expenses of the Church and shall make every effort to meet their commitment to the sustainable stewardship of the Church.
 The proportion of contribution from the member eCongregations shall be determined by the Church Council and reviewed every three years. In determining proportions, the Church Council shall consider the financial situation of the eCongregations and the degree to which they use the church building.

VI. ~~AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION; WITHDRAWAL OF A CONGREGATION; DISSOLUTION OF THE CHURCH~~

1. ~~All p~~Proposals to amend this Constitution shall be published by the same means and at the same time as a proposal to convene a General Assembly (see IV. 3.). A copy of the proposal shall also be available to all voting members in the premises of the Church, between the time of notice and the time of voting.
2. A congregation may, by the decision of its Assembly, declare its withdrawal from the Church. This declaration shall be made not later than 31 December of any year to become effective 31 December of the following year.
~~Individual members of a withdrawing congregation shall have the right to affiliate with another congregation of the Church, which may not refuse to grant such membership, without a waiting period for voting.~~
3. The Church may be dissolved by action of the General Assembly. Any such action must be confirmed by a second General Assembly convened not less than six months after the date of the first action.
4. In case of dissolution of the Church, liquidation shall be carried out by the Executive Committee under the supervision of the Church Council.
5. The net assets of the Church, after payment of all debts and payment of obligations to employees of the Church and of its ~~e~~Congregations, shall be applied, upon decision of the General Assembly, to an organization of public interest, wherever it may be located, whose purpose is analogous to that of the Church and is tax exempt. In no case shall any net assets be returned to the founders or members of the Church nor shall they be used to their personal gain whatsoever in whole or in part.
6. In consideration of the fact that German Churches provided the Church building and contributed to its maintenance over a long period, the Church Office of the Evangelical Church in Germany (EKD) shall be consulted in this matter.

VII. ~~USE OF PROPERTY~~

1. The Church is the owner of the church building located at Rue Verdaine 20 in Geneva.
2. The Church is committed to the sustainable management and preservation of the church building. This embraces the steady build-up of specific building reserves to guarantee continuity in the use of the church building and its facilities (organ, sound system, etc.) and to protect its value. As part of their contributions to the Church, the Congregations shall be responsible for contributing to this sustainable stewardship of the church building.
3. The Church Council shall adopt policies for the financing, maintenance, and periodic renovation of the church building and for any other properties that the Church may acquire in the future, and shall oversee implementation of these policies.
4. In view of the fact that the apartment immediately above the Sanctuary has, since the building was erected, always been the home of the pastor of the German-sSpeaking

~~pastor~~Congregation, it shall continue to be used for that purpose, rent free.

VIII. OFFICIAL NOTICES

The official media of publicity of the Church are the regular periodicals of the eCongregations. In the case a eCongregation does not publish a periodical or publishes too infrequently to meet the announcement requirements of this Constitution, official notices shall be addressed to the members ~~concerned~~ by ordinary mail.

In any case ~~where the~~ law demands that a notice be published in an official medium, that medium shall be the "Feuille d'avis officielle de la République et Canton de Genève".

IX. BYLAWS AND CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

1. The Church may adopt or amend Bylaws. No Bylaw may conflict with this Constitution. Bylaws may be adopted or amended by the General Assembly or by decision of the Church Council.
2. The Church may adopt or amend Continuing Resolutions. No Continuing Resolution may conflict with this Constitution or the Bylaws. Continuing Resolutions may be adopted or amended by the General Assembly or by decision of the Church Council.

X. AUTHENTIC TEXTS

Done in the German, English, and French languages, the three texts being equally authentic.
